Our goal is to reopen on Monday, November 30. READ MORE Learning to Skate Group Classes provide a fun and relaxed environment for skaters of all skill levels. Participants meet once a week for a 30-minute course followed by 15 minutes of supervised practice. Skate learning sessions last eight weeks (4 weeks during our mini session) and pass tests on the last day of class. The 2019-2020 annual membership to the Ice Sports Industry (ISI) is included in the registration. Skaters obtain badges or certificates of achievement and progress through the ISI curriculum. Groups are trained with skaters of similar age and skill level. Please indicate the level at which you sign up when you sign up. If necessary, the skater's skill level will be assessed on the first day of class by Ice Den instructors. Sorry, makeup classes are not available. If a course is missed, please remind your instructor and will work with the skater during the 15 minutes of supervised training immediately after their next lesson. Rental skates are not included in skate learning classes. Skate rental cards with eight rentals can be purchased at the Ice Den service counter for 26.25 plus taxes. All Learn to Skate participants are invited to practice their ice skating skills during public skating sessions on weekdays and weekends. Each participant receives eight electronic public skate entries (4 during the mini session) valid for any afternoon skating session (not valid for evening sessions; skate rental included. These admissions are available from the first Learn to skate and expire at the end of the eight-week session. Skaters also receive 15% off an item in the Ice Den Pro store, which is valid throughout the eight weeks of Skate Learning. Tuesday 6pm - Saturday 11.15am classes are for children 10 and under. Wednesday 6pm and Saturday 12.30pm classes are for all ages. The skate rental punch card offers 8 skate rentals. This card is non-refundable and not replaceable. After purchase, your punch card can be picked up at the Ice Den Service Office. This beginner class focuses on fun and safety. Off the ice, skaters learn to tie and walk properly on their skates. On the ice, skaters learn to fall safely, stand independently and start skating forward. If you have never taken lessons before, we recommend taking this course first. Participants learn the art of sliding on both feet and then on each foot independently. Skaters learn the introductory edge movements known as swizzles and wiggles. Skaters must pass the Pre-Alpha before entering the Alpha class. Skaters learn to caress the front, the crossings and are introduced to clockwise and counterclockwise skating. Participants learn to stop using the edges of their blades. Skaters must pass Alpha before entering Beta class. Beta-class skaters learn to skate upside down. Caresses and crosses in both directions are the main objective of the class. Participants are also introduced to another method of stopping with their blades. Skaters must pass the beta before entering the Gamma class. It is recommended that you complete this course before progressing to hockey lessons. Skaters learn intermediate skills like forward three-lap, mohawks and hockey stops! Skaters at this level can skate forward and backward, so the Gamma class focuses on maneuvers that allow the skater to move properly from front to backward skating. The Gamma class introduces techniques and movements that help skaters make the transition back and forth around their edges. Intermediate skills are refined in the Delta class. Inside three corners and onboard work are taught to develop the quality and control a skater has while performing their skills. Coaches focus on body balance and alignment. Learn to skate with your young child (toddlers ages 3 to 4). Beginners' basic skills are taught two participants. This course is only offered on Saturdays from 12:05 p.m. to 12:50 p.m. Beginner Learn to Skate: Homeschool is an eight-week program for homechooolers aged 6-17 years. Participants meet once a week for a 30-minute course followed by 15 minutes of supervised practice. This program is a great opportunity for your homeschoooler to try a new activity while staying active and socializing with other homechooolers. This class is for Beginner Skaters Only. Rental skates are not included in skate learning classes. Skate rental cards with eight rentals can be purchased at the Ice Den service counter. The fee is $26.25 plus taxes. More information Soon! This is an introduction to freestyle 1 with the main focus on the rear edges. This course can only be taken once, before entering the Academy class on Thursday. This course is only offered on Saturdays from 12:30 p.m. to 1:15 p.m. Skaters learn the basics of synchronized skating while improving the basic skating skills needed to progress through the levels of our Learn to Skate program. Skaters learn basic synchronized elements such as blocks, wheels, circles and intersections, as well as the basic positions of the hand and arm. Skaters learn to skate in unison at a tempo and have the opportunity to learn and practice a program to perform in our show or ice competition rdv (additional cost). Skaters who pay full price for the Synchronized Skating Learn to Skate class can choose to sign up for our Saturday Learn to Skate course at 11:15 a.m. for half of the regular registration fee. All ages are welcome. Skaters must have passed Beginner and cannot be higher than Freestyle 1. Theatre on Ice is offered on Saturdays from 1 p.m. to 1:45 p.m. for skaters who are at least Freestyle one or more level. This is a fun class based on performance, focusing on ice show and competition group numbers. Skaters will go through a simple audition before enrolling in this program. Additional costs for the Ice Theatre for costumes, props and entrance fees to the competition should be provided.
